

Heber Ward
#BUN OP 114-117

Heber Ward
organized

1861 still — in Fort

as president. She served for 19 years, with Sarah Ale Daybell, Mary Bronson, Avis N. Bronson, Mary McMur Cluff Jones, Hannah Harbour, Sarah Cummings and R as her counselors during that period.

The early pioneering days were difficult for the Relief ters. In addition to establishing their own individual homes go into the homes of others in caring for the poor, nursing for their Society they stored wheat that had been glea fields, sold rags and sold their Sunday eggs.

The second Relief Society president was Annie R. counselors were Elizabeth H. Murdock, Lavisa Alexander Duke.

In 1910 Johanna E. Jensen was called as stake Relief dent. Her counselors were Margaret Murdock and Sophie Carlie Clegg Tidwell as secretary and Mima Broadbent, tr The next reorganization took place in 1917 when Sophie called as president. Clara Clyde, Mima Broadbent and were her counselors during the three years that she served. Mima Broadbent was sustained as president in 1920 and